BOOKS THAT MOVE US FORWARD

(artificially) Intelligent
RAISING AUTHENTICALLYHUMANCHILDREN IN A SYSTEM BUILT FOR ARTIFICIAL SUCCESS
A challenge to compliance-driven systems—and a human-centered path toward curiosity, connection, creativity, and contribution.

Recalculating
A NAVIGATION SYSTEM FOR EDUCATORS WHO ARE BURNING OUT, GETTING OUT, OR STICKING IT OUT.
An invitation to recognize educator burnout and reconnect with a healthier, more meaningful life in and beyond the classroom.

PLAIN GLASS STAINED GLASS. HUMANS FIRST.

Bryan welcomes partnerships with public and faith-based schools, churches, and community organizations. Through the "plain glass" of learning and human development, the "stained glass" of faith, or a conversation between the two, he helps groups apply human-centered frameworks to their own systems, values, and goals.

People before Performance. Connection before Compliance.Curiosity before Certainty.
Technology in service of humanity—and education in service of a flourishing life.

CONNECT. COLLABORATE. KICK SOME CLASS.
